

Forage and Feast – 5 July 2011

As part of the Sheffield Food Festival PJ taste host a guided foraging walk around the beautiful Wyming Brook nature reserve. Expert ecologist Be Wiggs from Sheffield Wildlife Trust will be on hand to lend expert advice and a selection of edible plants will be identified and collected. Following the walk participants will enjoy a wild food BBQ and drinks incorporating many local and foraged ingredients.

Meet at the car park on Redmires Road SK269859 (see map of Wyming Brook at www.wildsheffield.com or for buses see: www.travelsouthyorkshire.com

Time of event: 6pm – 10pm

Cost: £17.95 per person. To reserve tickets please call in or send a cheque with a non refundable deposit of £5 per person to PJ taste, 249 Glossop Road, Sheffield, S10 2GZ. Tickets are limited in number.

Menu

Reception drinks: PJ taste Nettle Spritzer, Wild Cherry Bellini and Sloe Gin Cocktails

Citrus Hits® - Elderflower with Orange, Real Lemonade with a Hint of Yorkshire Mint

BBQ menu being developed in conjunction with some extreme cooking techniques! Any ideas welcome about what you would like to eat.